

International conference
Living under a Totalitarian Regime:
Conceptual Approaches to Collaboration and Resistance
30 May 2023, Riga, Latvia
Museum of the Occupation of Latvia
(Latviešu strēlnieku laukums 1, Rīga)

PROGRAMME

- 1:00 PM Dzintra Bungas (Latvia, the Occupation Museum Association of Latvia)
Opening of the conference
- 1:30 PM Daina Bleiere (Latvia, the Institute of Latvian History)
Problem of collaboration with the Soviet regime in Latvia: public discussions and conceptual approaches.
- 2:00 PM Toomas Hiio (Estonia, the Estonian Institute of Historical Memory)
Resistance and collaboration in Estonia during the Soviet and German occupations beginning with 1940: a general view.
- 2:30 PM Piotr Popławski (Poland, the Sybir Memorial Museum)
Resistance and collaboration of Poles deported to Soviet Union in 1940 and 1941
- 3:00 PM Grzegorz Wołk (Poland, the Institute of National Remembrance)
Polish opposition in post-stalinism period.
- 3:30 PM Bernd Florath (Germany, the Stasi Records Agency)
Some Considerations about Collaboration and Resistance in East Germany 1945–1989.
- 4:00 PM Jörg Morré (Germany, the Museum Berlin-Karlshorst)
The Origins of Repression in the GDR
- 4:30 PM Rajmund Fekete (Hungary, the Institute for the Research of Communism)
The Apostle of Hope – Cardinal József Mindszenty as a Symbol of Resistance
- 5:00 PM General discussion, questions and answers.
- 6:00 PM Conclusions of the conference